FRIDAY AT THE GREENWOOD COUNTY FAIR

Foods consultation judges will be available between 8:30-11:15 a.m. You must have your complete recipe with ingredients and instructions or the placing will be lowered one ribbon when judged. 4-H’ers should try to know some information about the nutrition of their product. Even though many of our classes are baked sweet type foods, using whole wheat, or adding oatmeal or dried fruit can add to the nutrition. You might also think how this food could fit into a healthy menu. Sharing this information with the judge will let her know you are learning about good nutrition as well as baking.

Arts & Crafts consultation judges will be available from 1:30-3:30.

We will be doing sign-ups this year by time, when you drop off your project please sign up on a time slot to see the judge. We ask that you not gather in groups inside the Matt Samuels building during judging. Leave the building and return at your chosen time to talk to the judge. Please allow poultry and beef exhibitors early time slots.
